

King and Cross || In God We Trust?

Group Notes

INTRODUCTION

Jesus sees a woman give everything she has. It is small in amount, but it is a great sacrifice. He celebrates not the amount of the gift, but the percentage of what she gave. She gave 100%. Jesus is celebrating percentage giving. Trusting in God is not about the amount, but the percentage.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

1. What three words describe what you are most grateful for in life?
2. What keeps you up at night?

SERMON NOTES REVIEW

Looking back at your message notes from this weekend's teaching, was there anything that caught your attention, challenged you, or confused you?

GROUP DISCUSSION

1. How has percentage giving impacted your life?
2. Read the story of the widow's offering in Mark 12: 41-44.
 - a. Why does Jesus choose to celebrate her offering?
 - b. How is the way the widow gives similar to what Jesus has done for us?
 - c. What do you think God wants you to learn from this passage?
3. Discuss a time when someone has been generous to you.
4. Stewardship is supervising, managing, or taking care of something.
 - a. What things/responsibilities has God entrusted to you?
 - b. Which of these things/responsibilities is hardest to admit are not yours? Like Chad often says, "What we think we own is really just on loan."
5. When we want God to bless an area of our life, we put Him first. Have you found that to be true? In what ways?
6. Faith is not just about knowledge, but also about action. What action step of faith do you sense God wants you to take?

PRAYER

Thank God for his faithfulness and ask him to help you to trust him in all areas of your lives, including your finances.
