

More Than My Status | Week 4

Introduction

Healthy relationships start when we stop blaming others and let Jesus change us. Confess, repent, and watch Him lead you into a better way.

Conversation Starters (10 minutes)

- What's one "oops" moment regarding a relationship from your life that you can laugh about now—but at the time was embarrassing?
- When was the last time you sensed God prompting you to apologize or make something right with someone

Sermon Notes Review (15 minutes)

What caught your attention, stood out to you, or challenged you from this weekend's teaching?

Group Discussion (45 minutes)

1. What is one area you can grow in to benefit your relationships?
2. When you think of a "great relationship," what qualities make it strong and lasting?
3. Why do you think it's easier to notice what others need to change than to see our own faults?
4. Read James 3:17 NIV - : What part of this verse challenges you most in your relationships?
5. Read Matthew 7:3-5 NIV - "
 - a. How does this connect to confession and repentance?
 - b. What keeps us from "taking the plank out of our own eye"?
6. Is there a specific relationship where you need to take the first step toward reconciliation this week?

Prayer (5 minutes)

Close your group time in prayer. You can use these words or your own words:

“Lord, show me where I need to change. Give me courage to confess, grace to repent, and love to restore what’s broken. Thank You for forgiving me and teaching me Your better way. Amen.”
